Could This Empty Lot Be a Park?

Is Hollywood in the Portland Parks & Recreation Neighborhood Park Acquisition Agenda? With possible changes coming to Grant Park, it is all the more important for the Hollywood to have its own urban park with green space. Whether it would be located in the lot next to the Hollywood Theatre or another space, prioritizing a public park space in the Hollywood should be central to the plan for the Hollywood District to be an entertainment, transportation, and pedestrian hub in the northeast.
